Subject: BIMCO Summer Shipping School, 14-18 September 2020

Dear BIMCO members and past participants

The past few weeks have been a challenging period for all of us. At BIMCO Training, we have been working from home, keeping our distances from each other, and we have postponed all our face-to-face courses until the second half of this year. Now in Denmark, businesses have gradually reopened, and although with caution, we're starting to enjoy the summer.

Ensuring safe learning environment means a bit more this year

We're still hopeful that the Summer Shipping School can take place on 14-18 September outside Copenhagen. For those of you not familiar with the area, the conference hotel KolleKolle is located in a beautiful countryside by Furesø Lake surrounded by forests. We've chosen this particular venue not only for its quiet and secluded environment but also because the hotel's staff is professional, friendly and will take great care of keeping the conference facilities and accommodation areas clean and disinfected.

We will also take extra measures to ensure that there are enough distances in the classroom and in dining areas in accordance with local guidelines on distancing. Your safety is extremely important and we will do everything we can to ensure a safe learning environment.

Unique blend of lectures, case studies, excursions and game

Every year at the Summer Shipping School we welcome participants from all over the world to our highly intensive crash course on all shipping-related subjects we can possibly cover in one week. The course is a unique blend of key principles of shipping operations, bills of lading, voyage and time chartering and demurrage, mixed with practical examples and case studies. During the week, we have arranged for a range of private and exclusive visits to local maritime institutions and companies.

We finish the week with the “Game of Fixtures”, a simulation exercise where participants compete to fix ships and cargoes applying all the knowledge gained during the week to get the best commercial results. The week will end with a celebratory dinner. Our past participants have formed long-lasting friendships and created communities of shipping professionals.

Please visit our website here for details and register online. I’ll look forward to welcoming you to the Summer Shipping School 2020.

It was a great course - very well organised and run.
